

Put your brand in the gaming conversation.

A home for game discovery, personal gaming records and independent gaming stories. Introduce your game or gaming brand through a clearly placed banner.

PIXELBOXD is preparing its Mexico and USA launch in English and Spanish. We are building our audience; established reach and campaign benchmarks are not yet available. Launch sponsorships have no guaranteed impressions, clicks or sales.

Founding sponsorship · $49 USD

Up to three available positions for the same 30-day campaign. One advertiser, with artwork supplied for each selected format.

Request a campaign: advertise@pixelboxd.com

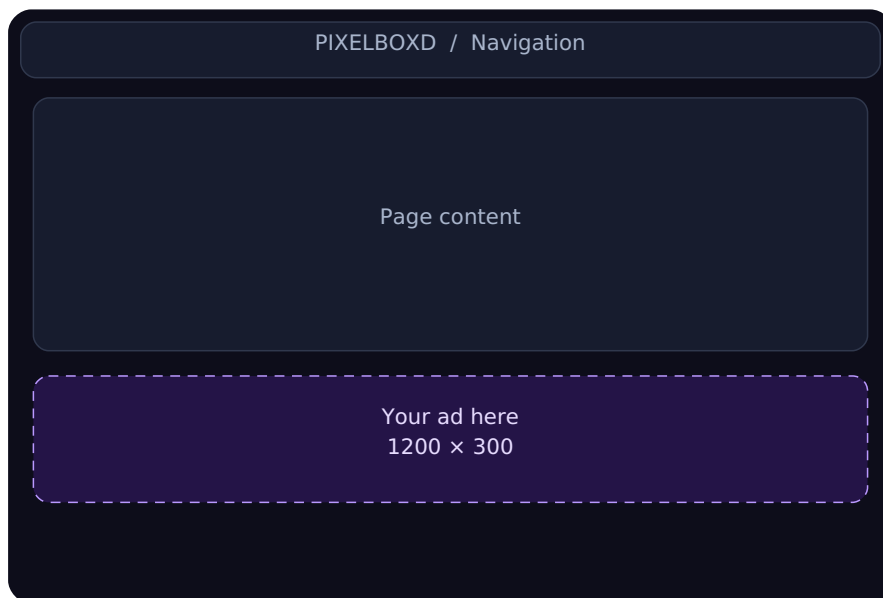

Introductory prices in the selected currency. One-time payment, no automatic renewal. Applicable taxes and any extra work are confirmed in the quote. A request does not reserve a position. Paid members and active paid-access trials remain ad-free; empty and ineligible views do not display banners. Booking a position does not guarantee every page view will show an ad.

After-content banner

$15 USD / per 30 days · One selected section / article placement

After a populated content section. Available on Home, Discover, Releases, Games, Community, Collections, Lists, the NEWS hub and NEWS articles.

Send artwork that fits.

- PNG or JPG, up to 5 MB per image.
- Supply the pixel dimensions shown for your placement. Images retain their proportions without cropping.
- Top and vertical banners need separate mobile artwork. The after-content and mid-article formats reuse the same image.
- Include an HTTPS destination link and a short image description. Tracking parameters may be included in your link.
- Send final artwork before the confirmed start date. Dates and availability are confirmed before payment.

From first message to live campaign

1. Request a placement and dates.
2. We confirm availability, scope and the final quote.
3. Pay the one-time Stripe invoice or payment link and send your artwork.
4. Review the placement, then we publish your scheduled campaign.

At campaign end, request a summary of recorded viewable impressions and clicks. These are ad measurements, not unique audience figures or a guarantee of sales.
